CHANGE MADE IN ENROLLING FORCE

Senator Elsner Says Amendments to County Unit Road Law Were Not Included in Bill.

CLERICAL OMISSIONS MADE

Senator from Jackson County Has No Direct Information About Special Session.

Senator Edward P. Elsner stated this afternoon that he had received no direct information in regard to the proposed special session of the Indiana legislature, and while he had heard the matter discussed no definite decision had been reached so far as he knew. Senator Elsner was in Indianapolis the first of this week.

The confusion in the road laws enacted by the last legislature, he said, was due to a clerical omission. He explained that a change was made in the enrolling department just ten days before the legislature adjourned and that the new members had overlooked the important amendments to the bill. The county unit road law was to have been amended so that the township trustees would have retained control of the unimproved roads of their township. Amendments providing for this were passed by the legislature, it has been shown, but the enrolling clerks failed to embody them in the bill. As the law now stands the township road funds are taken away from the township trustees and placed under the control of the county commissioners. The trustees are reluctant about serving as supervisors over these roads when the control of the funds is taken out of their hands. Under the law the commissioners have authority to appoint township supervisors and in some places the trustees are being named, but when they accept they do not receive additional compensation. In this county the trustees have not shown an inclination to act as supervisors and serve under the direction of the commission.

"I have always thought it was a mistake to change the force in the enrolling department of the legislature during a session," declared Senator Elsner. In my opinion it would be far better to appoint enrolling clerks for the entire session of the legislature. They become acquainted with the work and by the time the end of the session approaches they are able to handle their work rapidly. An illustration of the danger of changing the enrolling force was shown by the road law confusion. The legislature passed the amendments and their omission was due to a clerical error. A change was made in the enrolling department ten days before the session adjourned and right at the time when the work was very heavy."

Senator Elsner is opposed to the county unit road and voted against it when it was before the senate. He believed that it will prove an expensive piece of legislation for the state. "Why, petitions for new roads are pouring in now," he said. "We will always be up to our two percent. constitutional tax limitation with this law. If the legislature is called for a special session I shall certainly vote against the unit road law, if I get a chance, just as I did before."

PETITION FOR ROAD FROM MEDORA TO SPARKSVILLE

Request for Brick Highway is Made Under Provisions of the County Unit Road Law.

The first petition for the construction of a highway under the provisions of the county unit road law has been filed with the county commissioners and asks for a road between Medora and Sparksville, a distance of about five miles. The petitioners ask that the road be constructed of brick. A sixteen foot roadway is specified in the petition.

The commissioners can take no action on the petition until the matter

HINES' NOTICE NOT TAKEN SERIOUSLY

Jackson County Teachers Will Make Up Only Part of the Time Lost During Winter.

WILL BE PAID FULL SALARY

Township Schools Could Make Up All Lost Time Only by Remaining in Session Until July.

Although L. N. Hines, state superintendent of public instruction, has notified the township trustees in Indiana to withhold the salaries from teachers who refuse to make up the time that was lost during the fall and winter on account of the influenza epidemic, the township schools in this county will close about the usual time and the teachers are not alarmed over the settlement of salaries. Hines' notice was sent out after an understanding had been reached by Horace Ellis, former state superintendent, the attorney-general of Indiana and the township trustees relative to the payment of teachers during the time that the schools were closed.

When the schools of the state were closed by the order of the board of health the question of teachers' pay was taken up and it was decided that

THREE SCHOOLS IN REDDING TOWNSHIP COMPLETE TERMS

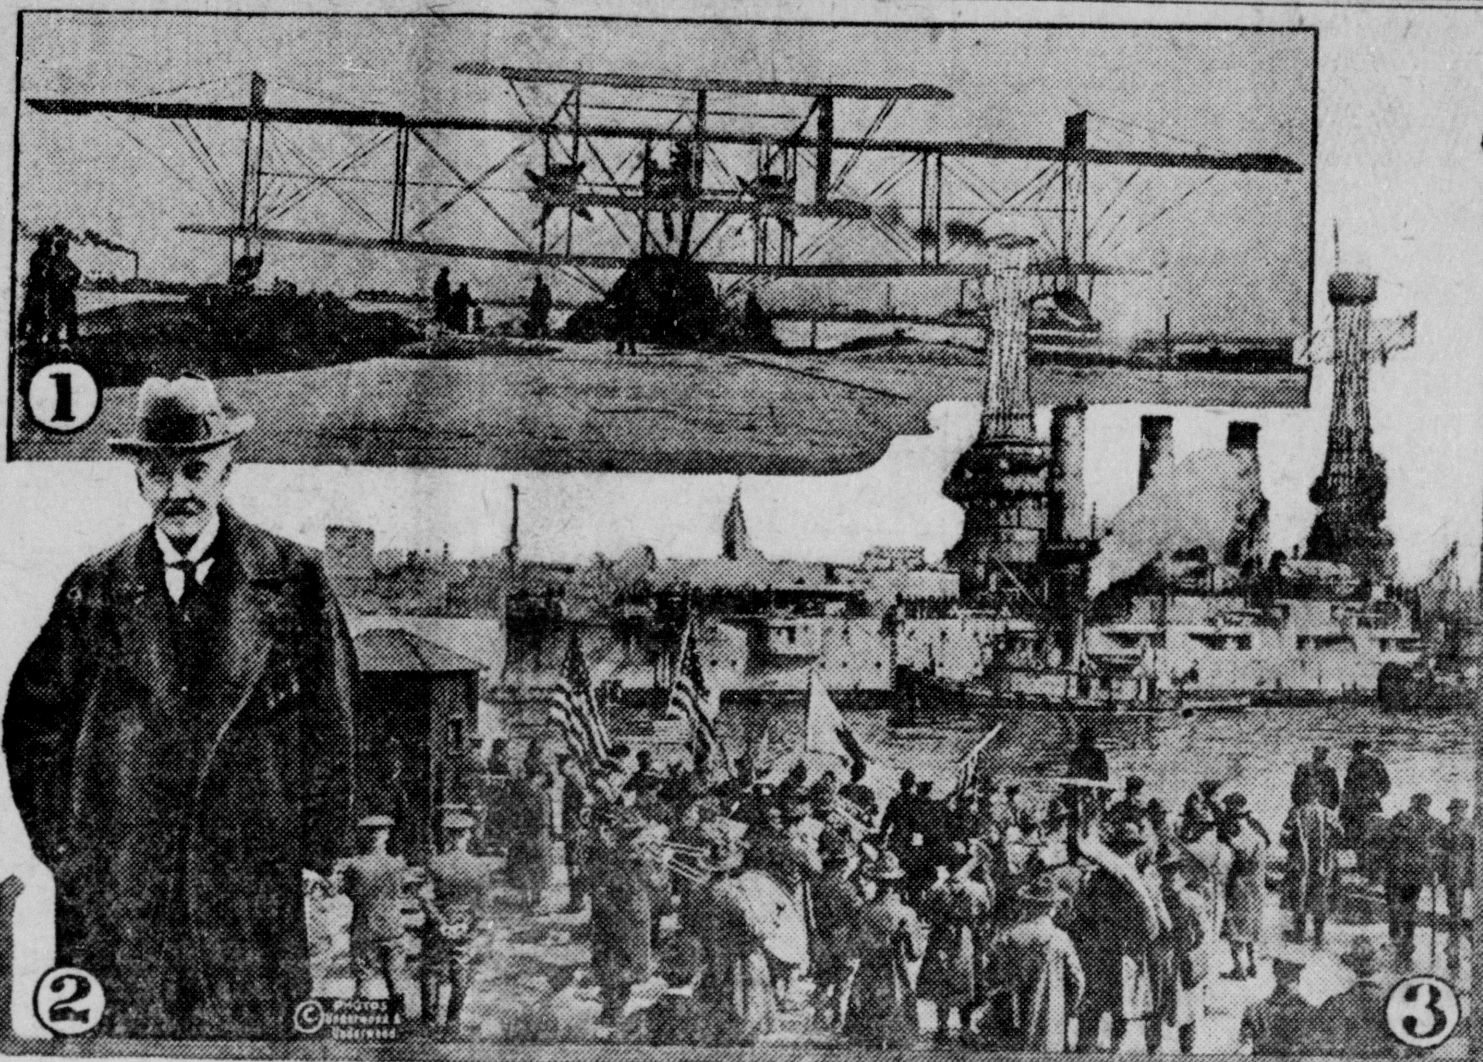

Patrons of Reddington, Baldwin and Fox Schools Gather for Closing Exercises.

Three schools in Redding township closed today and exercises were held at each place. The schools which completed their terms are the Reddington, Baldwin and Fox. The year has been very successful and the pupils have made splendid progress, despite the interruptions during the winter.

Special exercises were held at each school and were attended by a large number of the relatives of the pupils and the patrons of the schools. Basket dinners were served at the noon hour and the day proved to be one of thorough enjoyment.

TROOPS IN RUSSIA TO COME HOMES SOON

General March Announces That All Americans Will be Out of Arctic Service by June 1.

DISCONTENT IS REPORTED

Some of the Americans Nearly Mutinied Over Delay in The Transfer.

By United Press
Washington, April 11—Yankee troops in Northern Russia will be assured by the war department that their tenure of Arctic service against the Bolshevik will soon be over. Chief of Staff March already has announced that the last man should be out of that region by June 1. Reassurances are expected here to quiet the unrest among American troops, some of whom nearly mutinied several days ago after a long period of discontent at being held in service.

The refusal of some of these troops to go into front line trenches, announced by the war department late yesterday has not been unexpected, it is known here. The morale of all the allied forces in Russia is exceedingly bad. That of the British is generally rated best, the Yankees second, while the French mor-

AMERICANS IN RUSSIA SAID TO BE QUITE SAFE

Staff Officers Say That Bolshevik Forces Are Very Poorly Equipped.

By United Press.
Washington, April 11—General staff officers today reiterated General March's recent declaration that American forces in northern Russia are perfectly safe and are able to hold their own against bolshevik attacks. Despite the unrest in the Archangel region, it was stated, it was physically impossible to bring the troops home earlier than announced because of ice.

What disposition will be made of the men who mutinied March 30 and refused to fight, staff officers were unable to say today. The bolsheviks, reports here indicate, are poorly equipped and even if the allies were overwhelmingly outnumbered they could hold out indefinitely with their superior equipment. Peace delegates are considering a proposal for allied evacuation of northern Russia, removing also 20,000 to 30,000 loyal Russians and leaving the country to the bolsheviks, it was stated officially today.

Announcement of Names of Pupils in Four Townships Who Passed The Test Held in March.

READY TO ENTER HIGH SCHOOL

Another Examination to be Conducted in Each Township April 19—Last Test Comes in May.

Harry B. Henderson, county superintendent, has completed the grading of the examination papers of the eighth grade pupils in four townships and has announced the list of names of those who successfully passed the tests. A few pupils in each township were conditioned in some subjects and will be required to take another examination to remove the conditions before they can be awarded their diplomas. A few pupils failed to pass the tests and will be required to take the entire examination over again.

Mr. Henderson announces that the next examination will be conducted in each township on Saturday, April 19. For seven townships this will be the first opportunity that has been given the township eighth grade pupils to take the tests but in the four where the examinations have already been

BOLSHEVISM HAS RUN ITS COURSE IN INDIANA

Charles P. Tighe, Special Investigator Says There is Little Danger in State Now.

By United Press.
Indianapolis, April 11—Bolshevism has run its course in Indiana and is slowly disappearing, Charles P. Tighe, special department of justice investigator, said today. There is little danger of a bolshevistic uprising in the state and education of the people to the principles of bolshevism will naturally turn the people against them. Open meetings of bolsheviks in northern Indiana at one time caused officials some anxiety, he said. The greatest danger, he said, was in the foreign settlements of the Great Lakes cities.

400,000 Employees of National Railways Affected by Order of Director General Hines.

RETROACTIVE TO JANUARY 1

Increases for Men Who are Paid by Month Range From $15 to $58.30 Over 1917 Scale.

By United Press.
Washington, April 11—Train and engine men on lines of the national railway today were granted another increase in wages by Director General Hines. The order affects more than 400,000 employees and the increases are retroactive to January 1. Claims of the employees for time and a half for over time in road service was left to the bi-partisan board for decision.

Practically completing the "war cycle" of wage advances, Hines gave the four great brotherhoods increases ranging from $15 to $58.30 for men paid by the month and from $1.31 to $1.51 for men paid on a day basis over the 1917 wage scale.

The advances are designed to readjust "obvious injustices" wrought by the general advance granted railway workers May 25, 1918. Claims

GOVERNOR THINKS SPECIAL SESSION IS NECESSARY

Attorney General Having Little Success in Trying to Unravel Road Tangle.

By United Press.
Indianapolis, April 11—Attorney General Ele Stansbury today is trying to find a way to correct the county unit road unit and avoid a special session of the legislature. It was announced this afternoon that the attorney general would not hold out much hope for straightening out the measure without legislative action.

Governor Goodrich maintained his belief that a special session is virtually assured to insert amendments which were adopted by the legislature and omitted in the enrolling room before the bill went to the governor. There will be a conference of state officials tomorrow to decide this question definitely.

GENERAL STRIKE IN SAXONY GROWS

Government Has Succeeded in Regaining Control in Capital of Province.

WURZBURG IS RECAPTURED

Deposed Socialist Government Apparently Gaining Strength in Few Districts.

By United Press.
Berlin, April 11—Wurzburg has been captured and Munich entirely surrounded by forces of the deposed socialist government, according to advices received here today. After retreating from Nuremberg to Bamberg Premier Hoffman of Bavaria, and several of his ministers are reported to have succeeded in rallying an anti-soviet army consisting of soldiers, workmen and students. A large force retook Wurzburg from the bolsheviks after a brief encounter yesterday. Most of the soviet official soldiers are said to have surrendered. Another force has surrounded Munich, completely isolating it.

The Scheidemann government which has been temporarily removed to Weimar was represented today as increasingly optimistic regarding the situation in Bavaria. Restoration of socialist control is now believed to have at least an even chance. The general strike in Saxony and the Ruhr districts is reported to be growing but the government has succeeded in regaining control of the situation in Magdeburg, capital of Saxony. Street fighting in that city resulted in heavy casualties.

Spartacists stormed an unnamed newspaper office in Hamburg but their activities were reported to be limited. Government forces were said to greatly outnumber the radicals in that city.

The situation in Berlin is tense. The city is quiet, however, under the siege conditions directed by war Minister Noske. The government has taken special precautions to protect the American Red Cross mission which is housed in the American embassy. The square in front of that building is bristling with machine guns and armed motor cars form a constant patrol.

Although the national soviet congress has developed unmistakably radical tendencies, it apparently does not dare take any steps.

Representatives from Indiana Public Service Company Checking Up Financial Accounts.

Two representatives from the Indiana public service commission were at work today on the books of the Reddington Telephone Company, which recently filed a petition for permission to increase its rates.

The company is a mutual concern and the rates are based upon the expense of operation and upkeep. It is understood that little attention has been given to the system for some time and that extensive repairs are required. The commission has given notice that a hearing on the petition to increase the rates will be held at the state house, Indianapolis, at 10 o'clock April 15. All persons who are interested in the matter are asked by the commission to be present at the hearing.

THANKS TO NEWSPAPERS

The government bought and paid a good price for every commodity, except newspaper advertising space, that it needed and wanted for the prosecution of the war. In many instances supplies were bought and the price was discussed afterwards. But when it came to newspaper space the departmental heads showed marked ability in making generous demands always closing their requisitions with the formal, "we thank you." The newspapers of the country were glad to co-operate with the government during the critical days of the conflict, but they have felt along that they ought to have been treated as fairly as were other enterprises that were aiding the government. Besides formal thanks the newspapers also received appreciation in the way of strict regulations. The government realized that it needed newspaper space for the Liberty loan campaigns and all other drives in connection with the war, due recognition of which has been acknowledged.

The state council of defense is the latest bureau to add its thanks to the newspapers. A letter bearing the signature of George Ade expresses appreciation as follows:

"Each newspaper office in Indiana is entitled to an Honorable Mention diploma, to hang right alongside the towel, where every one may see it.

"The newspapers of Indiana were about the most effective volunteers of our state during the crowded months of the Great War. When print paper was almost as valuable as silk, and labor was our most expensive commodity, the newspapers gave freely, and more than freely, to the war campaigns all the space they could spare and then some. It should be known that editors are crowded for space nearly every issue and the only assets of a newspaper establishment are the printed columns. So, when the editors of Indiana gave to the war activities more space than they could afford to give, it was as if a merchant had cleared his shelves or a banker had emptied his coffers.

"The State Council of Defense and all of the national organizations to promote soldier welfare would have remained dumb and inert if the newspapers had not volunteered to carry the important messages to the people.

"The Indiana State Council of Defense authorizes the Chairman of the late publicity department to double-thank the editors and newspapers of our state for their enthusiastic help"

SOCIAL EVENTS

FIFTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The fifteenth anniversary of its organization was celebrated Thursday evening by the Seymour Rebekah Lodge Number 667 at the I. O. O. F. Hall. The lodge was organized April 9, 1904, with 100 members. The membership now numbers 158, and has varied during those years from less than that number to more than 200. It has been the custom each year to celebrate the anniversary in some way and this year it was decided to initiate a new class, having the work put on by The Minnie Lodge Number 125, of Crothersville, which lodge was instrumental in organizing the local one. Only two of the former degree staff were present from Crothersville last night. They were Mrs. Harve Rider and Mrs. Bertha England. Visitors were present from Crothersville, Brownstown, Columbus, Jeffersonville and Shoals, totaling in all about 225.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with the lodge colors, pink and green, and with potted plants, through the courtesy of M. A. Barick. The tables at which the banquet was served, were elaborately decorated with baskets of spring flowers.

The business session, which was conducted by the Crothersville organization, was opened and closed by the Seymour members, and was followed by the banquet.

T. R. and The Crooked Treasurer.

(Contributed by James A. Clary, Jamestown, N. Y.)

When Colonel Roosevelt was governor of New York State, charges were preferred to the governor against the treasurer of a county in the western part of the State, to the effect that the latter had retained certain fees for his own use that belonged to the county. These charges were admitted and the money in question was turned over to the county treasury. But the charges against the treasurer were still before the governor. The speaker of the Assembly was a close personal friend of the officer in question and had the ear and sympathy of Governor Roosevelt. Finally the time came for a hearing in the Executive Chamber. The treasurer and his attorney were present; so were the complainant and his attorney; so was the Speaker who had explained to the governor that the treasurer, instead of attempting fraud, had merely followed a precedent of long standing which never before had been questioned.

The hearing, therefore, was quite informal; the sympathy of the Governor being clearly with the defendant and when the treasurer's attorney objected to some of the statements made by the attorney for the complainant, Governor Roosevelt remarked:

"Oh, don't be too technical about that. You see, you have the sympathy of the court."

Finally, merely as an incident, the fact was brought out that the treasurer had received a gift of $100 from the cashier of a certain bank in the county, in which the treasurer had deposited public funds.

"What's that! What's that!" exclaimed the governor. "Do you mean to say that this man accepted a gift from the cashier of a bank with which the county was doing business?"

"Yes," was the answer.

"Then I shall remove him immediately regardless of everything else."

The climax came in an instant. The hearing was closed and the Speaker of the Assembly, the deposed county treasurer and his attorney left the Executive Chamber overwhelmed by the impulsive act of the governor, the justice of which they could not question.

D. A. Bollinger made a business trip to Louisville this morning.

NO INCOME TAX ON LIBERTY BOND INTEREST

An important matter to be considered in the buying of Liberty Bonds, and one that will appeal to those who pay income tax to the Government, is that for the next five years following the termination of the war there will be no income taxes to pay on the interest received on bonds, according to section 2 (a) of the Victory Liberty Loan Act, as explained by Secretary of the Treasury Glass.

"It is perhaps not generally understood," Mr. Glass says, "that under the terms of that section, the interest received on and after January 1, 1919, until the expiration of five years after the termination of the war, on an amount of bonds of the First Loan converted, the Second Loan converted and unconverted, the Third Loan and the Fourth Loan, the principal of which does not exceed $30,000 in the aggregate, owned by an individual, corporation, partnership or association, will be exempt from surtaxes, excess profits and war profits taxes now or hereafter imposed by the United States, upon the income or profits."

This exemption is in addition to any other heretofore conferred and is independent of any subscriptions to the Victory Loan and immediately effective. This act also provides for the Secretary to extend the privilege of converting 4 per cent bonds of the Second Loan into 4 1/4 per cent bonds, the higher interest rate to be effective from the semi-annual interest payment date next succeeding the date of presentation for conversion.

SALVATION ARMY WILL STAGE NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

Representative Here Thursday Planning for Drive to Be Staged In County.

W. B. Millard, representing the state headquarters of the Salvation Army, was in the city Thursday in the interest of the nationwide drive to be made by that organization during the week of May 19-26. Several local people were conferred with and the representative of the Salvation Army, which has done wonders for the American fighting forces in France was assured that he would receive assistance in staging the campaign in Jackson county.

According to the representative the plan is to make the per capita quota for the entire nation 15c for each person. With a population of 25,000 Jackson county's share would be about $3,750. As many of the boys who have returned from active service in France have spoken highly of the work of the Salvation Army, it is believed that the organization will be able to conduct a successful campaign in this county.

THE PLACE TO TRADE

2nd and Chestnut Streets

ter is addressed to a big ordnance depot down near Tours.

I am first out after 8:55 tonight. I got in last night at 10 o'clock. Went to Neufchateau the last trip and tied up at Liffol-la-Grand for rest. Came back eight yesterday. Had a day light trip both ways. They have been doing some work on my engine and she is better than ever. She has three service stripes. Many new engines were on the road when I got her but they have long since been disqualified for the road and are working in the yards while the 17 is still one of the best American engines in the Est railroad. They are storing some of the engines for the French to take over. My engine belongs to the "Etat railroad." I hope I don't lose her as long as I have to run an engine over here.

The talk is that two casual companies are to be made up here of married men and men of dependents to be sent home. That is the latest Bull. There was a big write up in the "Stars and Stripes" an American army paper. It told about the service of the railroad before the armistice and up to the present time. It told about 2,200 railroad men receiving an offer of $250 a month and an 800 franc bonus to buy civilian clothes to stay over here and railroad and not be under an military law. They got 18 men out of 2,200 so that shows how anxious the boys are to get home. At the end of the write up it stated "that a man in khaki would pull the last train of soldiers to the base port on their way to America." That means that some poor unfortunate men of the railway operating troops will be the last to leave France.

I sure hope I get home by June. This life sure gets monotonous. Even if a fellow has a nice day light trip, he has no home or no place to greet him when he gets in. I am good and full of army life and home sweet home would be heaven to me.

They was going to hold the 17 for a troop train Thursday. A special train leaves here and goes to Burbone-les Baines to get a train load of soldiers out of the 29th division and take them to Bar-sur-Robe. General Pershing is going to be there and they are going to have a big celebration. They are awful short of engines here tonight so they canceled the order on my engine. I am glad of it as I don't want to run all over the country with a troop train and haul Generals around. If I make a turn tonight or get back by Thursday I will probably be elected for it as the Supt. order me held for it with the 17. All our engines here went to Neufchateau with empties to move the 28th division. The 80th division comes next and it is going to take 500 American cars to move their stuff without counting the men.

I am glad you are well. Wish I could see you all. It has been a long time since I have saw any of you except John. I hope to get home soon. France holds no charm for me. I wish some of the old bucks who were so anxious to do service for their country had got a taste of what some of us have.

I hope Mama and Pop are well. I think I have done my bit in this country. I have got an engine that was a year in France when I got her. She run hot when I got her and pounded bad. I have run her since the first of November and she has seen eighteen months of hard service without a general overhauling and still one of the best engines they have. I worked hard to get her in shape and done most the work myself. I worked on her a couple of hours this morning setting up wedges, etc.

Well Grace I will close for this time. Hope I see you soon. One thing they can't keep us over here over a few months longer and I have been away over a year and a half now.

Lovingly,

Harold.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, troubled with undigested foods, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief, so you can eat what you like. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Soldiers' Letters

Trip Through France.

Corp. Martin Steinwedel has written his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Steinwedel, as follows:

Camp D'Auvours, Sarthe, France.
Letter No. 62.

Wednesday, March 26th, 1919.

My Dear Folks and All:—

Well, here I am back at Camp D'Auvours back from my trip to the Pyrenees Mountains. Now to say the least I sure had one wonderful trip. I will go over it in a hurry tonight, but will try and write a more interesting letter tomorrow or day after, as soon as I get rested up a little, and get back to army life once more.

Here we left Le Mans Sunday, March 16th about 10 o'clock and went by the way of Bordeaux, all the way down to Caunteret in the Hautes Pyrenees department. These are the highest of all the Pyrenees Mountains.

Went as far as Pierrefitte by train, and here we got off and took the electric tramway up a winding way to Caunteret. We arrived here about 5 o'clock Monday, March 17th. Then assigned to the Hotel d'Angleterre, the best in town and after taking a nice hot sulphur bath, went down in the dining hall, and say what a feed they did put out. Everything from starting with soup to finishing up with ice cream (by the way this is the first ice cream I have had in France) then right after supper went to the Y. where they had some vaudeville show besides they had a good orchestra as good a selection of music as I have heard in the States anywhere or over here. Then after the show, hit the bed. Now, here sleeping between white sheets, and once more on these nice French feather beds, and say, Mama, they are wonderful. Oh, how I did sleep. Next morning had breakfast at 9 o'clock, and you know a nice white napkin to cover up your chest and legs, you know, regular hotel fashion. Now then on Tuesday, well, I scouted around quite a bit, and in the afternoon went to the Y. movies. Good shows, nothing but the best. Yes, and then Hughes and I went to the swimming pool, nice warm sulphur baths. Can you imagine anything like that up in the hills.

On Wednesday, while walking around town I met Fat Reynolds, and we bummed together the greater part of the time. Now Fat will be home next month some time, and he will be around to see you and assure you once more that I'm alright and looking fine and dandy, and besides enjoying myself to the fullest extent.

Thursday, Hughes and I and some more men made an attempt to climb the mountains.

Before I go any further I must tell you that we had oodles of snow everywhere. But at the same time it was warm.

Going up the mountains with snow about two feet deep is quite a trick, and we made a bold attempt to reach the Spanish Bridge, but were unsuccessful, but the following day we made another attempt with skids or "skees" and we made it in good shape. Say these mountains are wonderful. Scenery is great. All mountains snow capped.

There wasn't a minute of the day that I wasn't on the go all the time.

Hughes and I had our pictures taken together while up there and I'm sending along a few, which I hope you'll appreciate alright. Nothing extra, but nevertheless, they resemble us to a certain extent.

Then we took the trip to Lourdes, and this trip alone was worth more than my trip to France. Went up Mount Calvaire, and saw the wonderful work and different stations of fourteen different views of Christ. This is great. I sent you all sorts of pictures and books from here, and you will only appreciate it from that. Besides this I saw the three great churches, one built on top of the other and one greater than the other. Now I can never begin to write all about this, as it is too much. I will tell you all about it when I get home. From there went up the cable electric tramway up one of the highest mountains; from this mountain you can see all over that part of the country.

Now the scenery from Le Mans to Caunteret was a wonderful sight alone, and I'm sending you a map which will give you a better idea of where I have been.

I received stacks of mail today from you all, and I will answer them as soon as I can. Right now, everybody here in the office wants to know everything that I have seen and of course I'm somewhat tired out after being out ten days. But I'll get normal one of these days again, and I will write you all I know, which of course doesn't amount to very much.

Next month I'm going to Paris for three days, and I hope to have a great time on this trip. Right now we are very busy at the office, as we have once more reorganized this Camp, and of course that means lots of work. However it looks very favorable that it might be possible that I will be home some time in August or September.

I was gone from camp for ten days, and I certainly enjoyed every minute of my stay from the very start. I shall always remember this trip.

Say, I sent so much stuff home, please let me know what you all get, as I'm rather anxious to know whether or not you will get everything that I sent home.

Kindly watch the new address below, as it has been changed once more, and of course that all helps to get the mail quicker.

Trusting this finds you all in the best of health, and assuring you that I will write you more of a sensible letter tomorrow or day after, when I hope to be back to my senses.

With love to all, Papa, Mama, Clarence, Helen and Alice, I am,
Your loving son and brother,
Martin.

BANKS MUST NOT BE SADDLED WITH LOAN

The banks of the United States must be left free to finance the reconstruction of productive enterprises and must not be cluttered up with the Victory Liberty Loan. That is the composite, thought-out opinion of two of the West's most noted professors of finance, Carl C. Plehn, professor of finance in the University of California, and Murray L. Wildman, head of the department of economics and finance of Stanford University. Both agree that the money needed to finish paying for the war should not come out of working capital, but should be raised out of individual savings of humble and wealthy.

"If the people take the Loan, as they must," Professor Plehn says, "the banks will be left free to lend to the manufacturer, the farmer, the grocer, the butcher, and the baker, so that they can get busy again on a peacetime basis. Then production and business will grow and, by the formula, prices will come to normal. If we leave it to the banks, they will have no funds left for business, big or little. We, ourselves, will not profit and the day of our redemption will only be postponed."

Professor Wildman, whose ability caused him to be called from Stanford to Washington for war finance service, agrees with the California economist, adding: "It would be a grave mistake to saddle the banks of the country with the Victory Loan at this time."

When two professors agree, it's time to sit up and take notice. When two professors not only agree with each other, but agree with the government, that settles it. Finance is their business—particularly government finance. They have spent their lives studying it and are paid good salaries for teaching the principles of it to the men who are going to run the nation tomorrow.

Finance is not the business of the wisacre who screws down the corners of his mouth and says, "Let the banks do it." Better take the advice of scientists who know.

they were entitled to full time for the period that the schools were closed. The attorney general and the state board of accounts ruled that the teachers may be required to make up the lost time but there was no mandatory condition and the matter was left with the local authorities. The attorney-general based his ruling on a court decision which was given in the northern part of the state in favor of a teacher who brought suit to compel the township trustee to pay her for the time the schools were closed.

Harry B. Henderson, county superintendent, stated this morning that some of the township schools in this county were closed from six to thirteen weeks during the fall and winter and that if all the lost time should be made up at the close of the regular school term the classes would be in session until the middle of the summer. The parents of the boys who live on the farm would not agree to such extension of the school term, he said. Mr. Henderson said that the matter of paying the teachers for the time lost was settled under the administration of Horace Ellis, state superintendent, and that the teachers had been paid full time before the present superintendent took over the office.

The teachers in Jackson county, of course, are interested in the notice that has been given by Hines, but none of them are alarmed lest their last month's check may be withheld by the township trustee. It is understood here that the Hines ruling means that teachers who are requested to make up the lost time should do so, but that local conditions must govern. In some townships the teachers have already made up part of the time lost, but as a rule extra

In some townships the teachers have already made up part of the time lost, but as a rule extra class sessions were not conducted in this county. In this city part of the time that was lost will be made by holding classes a few weeks longer than usual in June. The matter of conducting classes on Saturday was taken up several months ago, but was not believed to be advisable as many of the local high school boys were employed on that day and could not afford to lose their earnings by giving up their employment on Saturday to attend classes.

It is the general opinion of school authorities here that the matter of the teachers making up lost time is closed so far as local authorities are concerned as the ruling of the attorney general, the educational department and the state board of accounts has been followed.

The people in Jennings county who want the court house moved from Vernon to North Vernon are greatly excited over the circulation of a petition asking for an appropriation of $5,000 for the repair of the present court house. The North Vernon people declare that if the first appropriation is made, additional appropriations totaling $50,000 will be asked and so much money will be spent on the building that the voters will not desire to build a new court house.

MAXON PHARMACY SAYS CLEAN-UP, PAINT-UP

Get the House in Order for the Boy—He Has Seen Enough Old Ruins, He Longs for Cleanliness, Neatness and Brightness.

The Yanks are coming! Home, this time. And we don't call them "Yanks," they're "our own boys." They are coming back from battle and hardships and devastation to the land that you may be sure they have always longed for and dreamed about and hungered to get back to.

What sort of a place will they find it? Will home come up to their dreams? Will it look as good as they were sure it would?

That's up to you.

You know whether the old place has run down, whether the stress of war economy has forced you to neglect the appearance and the upkeep of your home. The chances are that it HAS run down. You haven't had the time, nor the money, nor quite the heart to "Clean Up and Paint Up" that you had in bygone years. Maybe it didn't seem quite fitting to you to look too spruce and spick and span when you knew your country needed your money and your time and the fellows you knew and loved were doing without a whole lot of things—food and rest and shelter.

Those days are happily over now. No more hardships, nor danger, nor privation. They're coming back.

You may be sure they have had enough of devastation, of the stark look of Want. They have seen enough ruined villages. They have seen enough dilapidated public and private buildings, enough run-down equipment, enough down-at-heels homes and towns and cities.

What they want to see is what they have dreamed about—bright, shining, neat, orderly homes and communities. Places where the paint brush has been—recently and lavishly. They long for the appearance of cheer and prosperity, of cleanliness and of thrift. Above all of cleanliness.

You know how things stand. You know what the last few years have brought. You know that all the devastation was not over there.

We know that things have gone to seed just a little. They had to, perhaps. But the evil day is past. Our boys are coming home. They have had enough of horrors. They hunger for the old, normal life, the clean and tidy homes, the trim streets, the well-kept lawns, the carefully mended fences and outbuildings, the fresh, clean beauty of new paint.

That will beat any scenery in Europe for them. Let's give it to them.

The commission of the Scottsburg high school, which was revoked several weeks ago, will be restored soon. State High School Inspector Williams paid the Scottsburg school an official visit last week to see if conditions were such as to warrant the restoration of the commission. He found conditions much improved and because of the earnestness and enthusiasm of the pupils in their class work has recommended the restoration of the commission. The commission of the Austin high school will also be restored for at least the remainder of the school year.

TRAINMEN GIVEN BOOST IN WAGES

of the conductors, trainmen, firemen and engineers have been pending since last December. Consideration of the case has occupied the time of the railroad administration wage board since the first of the year when the hearings ended.

Only an approximate estimate of the added burden which will accrue to the railroads as a result of the increase was obtainable from railroad officials. They estimated that if increases sought by train and engine men, dining and sleeping car employees and railroad police had been in effect under last year's condition the additional advance on these accounts would total about $67,500,000 annually.

A comparison of the 1917 wages of the four brotherhoods and the wages now ordered is given below:

| Occupation | 1917 wages | new wgs |
|------------|------------------|----------|
| Passenger | | |
| Conductors | $135-$165 mo. | $180. |
| Baggagemen | $71.50-$105 mo | $124.80 |
| Brakemen | $68.75-$90 mo | $120. |
| Engineers | $4.47 day | $ 5.79 |
| Firemen | $2.08 day | $ 4.31 |
| Freight | | |
| Conductors | $4.99 day | $ 5.40 |
| Brakemen | $2.73 day | $ 4.08 |
| Engineers | $5.33 day | $ 6.64 |
| Firemen | $3.33 day | $ 4.81 |
| Yard | | |
| Conductors | $3.87 day | $ 5.33 |
| Brakemen | $3.47 day | $ 5.00 |
| Engineers | $4.20 day | $ 5.72 |
| Firemen | $2.72 day | $ 4.25 |

With the disposition of the brotherhoods' claims for readjustment of wage scales only two relatively small classes of rail employees remain to be dealt with, the Hines' statement announced. Dining and sleeping car employees have presented their arguments and their cases are before the railroad administration. Members of the railroad's police force were given increases about four weeks ago.

In announcing his decision in the brotherhoods' cases Hines gave an inkling of the problem which he faced in arriving at a settlement: "When the report of the board of wages and working conditions on these claims were made," Hines said, "I was faced with the following alternatives:

"(1) To refuse to make any readjustments whatever because of the present unsatisfactory condition of railroad revenues, in spite of the fact that this class of employees had reason to expect readjustment because of readjustments accorded other classes of employees.

"(2) To establish relative justice between the various classes of employees by cutting down the wages established for the other classes during the war.

"(3) To make readjustments proportional with those which had been made for other employees.

"Of these three possibilities, I am satisfied that only the last was practicable and just and I therefore adopted it."

As a result of his stand in this case, Hines said that after dealing with the dining and sleeping car employees, wage questions will be handled in the future "only in the light of conditions hereafter arising."

This statement, however, does not infer that the pay of employees of the American railway express company will not be given just consideration, officials said. The express men's wages have been discussed for several months and it is not unlikely they will be decided within two weeks according to officials.

TROOPS IN RUSSIA TO COME HOME SOON

ale is understood to be lowest.

Unofficial reports have told of mutinies in recent weeks both in the British and French forces in north Russia but up until March 30, the American soldiers while frequently grumbling at their lot had not refused to go to the front. Thus they are the last to break out.

The spirit of the forces in the Archangel region has been known for some time to officials here and in Paris and has served to increase the fervor there for fighting the Bolsheviks with food instead of men and guns.

The food offensive as finally developed is to set up a virtual relief organization to feed Russia particularly the cities where conditions are worst. These are the centers of the Bolshevik activity and it is hoped that by giving the people sustenance Bolshevism will diminish.

Meantime the British are sending seasoned veterans to Archangel to bolster morale there.

While there is a total of only 7,000 American troops in Archangel, they have seen some rather severe fighting since the first of the year and on several occasions have been subjected to the fire of Bolshevik artillery while occupying snow and ice covered trenches.

The reported trouble occurred in a unit almost wholly composed of selective service men from Michigan.

The incident caused considerable comment here, particularly among senators and representatives who have demanded that the troops in Russia be returned home. Army officials expressed no alarm at the situation, declaring that the men would be brought back as promised and sooner if possible.

Chester Lind, of Jonesville, visited in this city this morning.

EUROPE'S MAP IS VASTLY CHANGED BY WORLD WAR

Kings Dethroned And Emperors Abdicate, Making Way for Rule By People.

If you will take a look at the map of Europe and recall the things that have been happening in the last four years you will see at a glance that two-thirds of the European Old World has been overturned in a governmental sense.

There are many vacancies in the old lists of kings. The Russian nobility has been wiped out. It has disappeared from the Almanac de Gotha, the Red Book of Royalty.

A Kaiser is gone in Germany, a dozen kings in the German states, the rulers of Rumania, of Bulgaria and of Greece. There may be others who will follow for there is a strange and new spirit abroad in the world, a new and yet a very old spirit.

In Europe there are some hundreds of millions of people, freedom crazed. Every man of them is, individually, wanting a personal hand in the making of new laws. A million sound and crazy theories of government are being jumbled together.

There is not the slightest objection to their forming such governments as they want. They can reorganize along their own lines. There are no fetters on them. They are free to set up such democratic governments as they want. Doubtless there would be little objection to certain states going back to the monarchical form if the people thought that best.

Right now the Allied nations have a slow and wearisome job. The tedious task of impressing the points of this new deal on the people who are coming into control in the chaotic empires. In brief, the Germanic idea must be stamped out and uprooted.

If it is not done we may have to fight this war all over again in fifty years. Therefore we Americans are staying till the end and doing our best to see that there is a new and a fair and square deal. All of which is costing us money, but it is a mighty good way to pay our peace insurance premiums.

Therefore there is a call for another Liberty Loan subscription. Do not get the idea that it is not as important as the others were. Our soldiers are still standing along the picket line of civilization.

Those other Liberty loans were training loans, and transportation loans and fighting loans, but this one is the reorganization, the rehabilitation and reconstruction, the reclamation, peace and rescue loan. And don't let any one tell you that it is the least important of all the loans that have been offered.

We want the world to start out again with a fair chance. We hope to see a good many time honored abuses wiped out forever. We want to see the Prussian spirit tamed and the German spirit in general weakened till it will never again menace the earth. And because of these wishes and hopes we are not turning our back on Europe. We want to feel safe when it is all over and the treaty signed, sealed and delivered.

This last is the Peace Loan as well as the "Victory" loan. And we want to make it an enduring peace.

THE VICTORY LOAN

By Berton Bellis.

We sent the boys over—
Now we're going to bring them back!
The game's not finished,
America will never slack!
Dig down in your jeans!
Whoop 'er up for fair!
It takes more than shouting.
They need money over there!
They've placed Old Glory
In VICTORY unfurled—
Kept us from being slaves—
We're now freemen of the world!
So buy BONDS—'tis VICTORY
You're investing today;
So cheer up—and back up
The boys across the way.
Remember, it's a duty
You all must do!
So stand up—and put up
For our red, white and blue.
Now, grit your teeth
And show your Yankee pride—
For the boys, they are watching
From the other side.

WHAT OUR BOYS HAD TO DO.

What our boys had to do they did. They asked for no guarantee against loss. They were prepared to give their lives, and many made the supreme sacrifice. We are not asked to give our lives. No one is asked to give money. The government offers to borrow and it offers the safest security ever devised and an investment that is highly profitable as well.

held those who were given a conditional grade or failed will take the examination again. The last opportunity to take the test will be given in May. Superintendent Henderson said that by that time most of the candidates for diplomas will have made their grades and because of the small number of pupils to take the test it will be conducted at the court house, except where the trustees make a special requirement that it be held in the township.

Those who passed the March examination follow:

Vernon township—Mabel McCammon, Violet Hayes, Lawrence Horton, Susie Bedel, Elizabeth Bedel, Dorothy Proctor, Mary Dailey, Lucile Horton, Katherine Lewis, Doris Proctor. Susie Bedel made the highest grade in the township. Six pupils were conditioned in some subjects and four failed to make the necessary grade.

Brownstown township—Mary Emmons, Kelsa Cockerham, Elizabeth Pollert, Alpha Reedy. Eleven were conditioned and four failed.

Washington township—Ralph Thompson. Two were conditioned and three failed.

Driftwood township—Harry Waskom, Felix Meahl, Harry Johnson, Margaret Clark, Clifford Gabbart, Clyde Edwards, Lucinda Terkhorn, Stella Meahl, Edna Peters, Mabel Brewer, Harley Huddleston, Herbert Mueller, Nerva Herndon Robert Elliott, Belya Killion. In this township Mabel Brewer made the highest grade. Only one pupil was given a grade of condition and there were no failures, which is an excellent record for the township.

George E. Jerrell is here from Indianapolis to spend several days with his sister, Mrs. George Nuss, North Ewing street.

National Convention of Insurance Men
Recognize Liberty Security Values.

The national convention of insurance commissioners recently decided that in the auditing of all insurance companies for the year ending December 31, 1918, par would be allowed for all Liberty Bonds.

Financiers see in this action of the always careful and always conservative insurance commissioners a certain indication that the present low prices of Liberty Bonds of the first four issues are only temporary and that the bonds are soon to go above par.

The action should be an incentive to the private owner of Liberty Bonds to hang on.

A Vote of Thanks.

The people of the United States will cast their vote of thanks to their brave sons who whipped the Germans when they buy Victory Liberty Notes (short-term bonds) in the Victory Liberty Loan.

CHAPTER II.

The First Wayfarer Lays His Pack Aside and Falls in With Friends

The little hall in which he found himself was the "office" through which all men must pass who come as guests to Hart's Tavern. A steep, angular aircase took up one end of the room, and beneath its upper turn was the counter over which the business of the house was transacted, and behind this man was engaged in the peaceful occupation of smoking a corn-cob pipe. An open door to the right of the airway gave entrance to a room from which came the sound of a deep, sonorous voice employed in what turned out to be a conversational solo. To the left another door led to what was evidently the dining room. The glance of the stranger sent in that direction revealed two or three tables covered with white cloths.

"Can you put me up for the night?" inquired, advancing to the counter. "You look like a fellow who'd want room with bath," drawled the man behind the counter, surveying the applicant from head to foot. "Which we can't do," he added.

"I'll be satisfied to have a room with bed," said the other.

"Sign here," was the laconic response.

"Can I have supper?"

"Food for man and beast," said the other patiently. He slapped his palm upon a cracked call bell and then looked at the fresh name on the page.

"Thomas K. Barnes, New York," he read aloud. He eyed the newcomer more.

"My name is Jones—Putnam Jones. I run this place. My father and grandfather run it before me. I had to meet you, Mr. Barnes. We used to have a hostler here named Barnes. What's your ideal for footin' this time o' the year?"

SHOE POLISHES

"Hello, Rushcroft," he greeted, as meeting an old-time and greatly beloved friend. "This is good. 'Tis my soul you are like a thriving date palm in the middle of an endless desert. How are you?"

They shook hands warmly. Mr. Dillingford slapped the newcomer on the shoulder affectionately, familiarly, and shouted:

"Who would have dreamed we'd run across good old Barnes up here? By Jove, it's marvelous!"

"Friends, countrymen," boomed Mr. Rushcroft, "this is Mr. Barnes of New York. Not the man the book was written about but one of the best fellows God ever put into this little world of ours. I do not recall your names, gentlemen, or I would introduce each of you separately and divisibly."

Lyndon Rushcroft was a tall, saggy man of fifty. Despite his determined erectness he was inclined to sag from the shoulders down. His head, huge and gray, appeared to be much too ponderous for his yielding body, and yet he carried it manfully, even theatrically. The lines in his dark, seasoned face were like furrows; his nose was large and somewhat bulbous, his mouth wide and grim. Thick, black eyebrows shaded a pair of eyes in which white was no longer apparent—it had given way to a permanent red.

A two-days' stubble covered his chin and cheeks. Altogether he was a singular exemplification of one's idea of the old-time actor.

Passing through the office, his arm linked in one of Barnes', Mr. Rushcroft hesitated long enough to impress upon Landlord Jones the importance of providing his "distinguished friend, Robert W. Barnes," with the very best that the establishment afforded. Putnam Jones blinked slightly and his eyes sought the register as if to accuse or justify his memory. Then he spat copiously into the corner, a necessary preliminary to a grin. He hadn't much use for the great Lyndon Rushcroft. His grin was sardonic. Something told him that Mr. Rushcroft was about to be liberally fed.

come!" He neglected to say that Mr. Montague Bacon, in passing a few minutes before, had leaned over and whispered behind his hand:

"Fellow upstairs from New York, Mr. Rushcroft—fellow named Barnes. Quite a swell, believe me."

It was a well-placed tip, for Mr. Rushcroft had been telling the natives for days that he knew everybody worth knowing in New York.

Barnes was momentarily taken aback. Then he rose to the spirit of the occasion.

"I don't mind having a cocktail. Will you join me?"

"As a matter of fact, I'm expected to," confessed Mr. Dillingford. "We've been drawing quite a bit of custom to the taproom. The rubes like to sit around and listen to conversation about Broadway and Bunker Hill and Old Point Comfort and other places, and then go home and tell the neighbors that they know quite a number of stage people. Human nature, I guess. Listen! Hear that? Rushcroft reciting 'Gunga Din.' You can't hear the thunder for the noise he's making."

The descended the stairs and entered the taproom, where a dozen men were seated around the tables, all of them with pewter mugs in front of them. Standing at the top table—that is to say, the one farthest removed from the door and commanding the attention of every creature in the room—was the imposing figure of Lyndon Rushcroft. He was reciting, in a sonorous voice and with tremendous fervor, the famous Kipling poem. A genial smile wiped the tragic expression from his face. He advanced upon Barnes and the beaming Mr. Dillingford, his hand extended.

"My dear fellow," he exclaimed resoundingly, "how are you?" Cordially boomed in his voice. "I heard you had arrived. Welcome—thricefold wel-

"Meet Mr. Bacon, Mr. Barnes," introduced Mr. Dillingford, going to the needless exertion of indicating Mr. Bacon with a generous sweep of his free hand. "Our heavy leads. Mr. Montague Bacon, also of New York."

"Ham and eggs, pork tenderloin, country sausage, rump steak and spring chicken," said Mr. Bacon in a cavernous voice, getting it over with while the list was fresh in his memory. "Fried and boiled potatoes, beans, succotash, onions, stewed tomatoes and—er—just a moment, please. Fried and boiled potatoes, beans—"

"Ham and eggs, potatoes and a cup or two of coffee," said Barnes, suppressing a desire to laugh.

"And apple pie," concluded the waiter triumphantly. "I knew I'd get it if you gave me time. As you may have observed, my dear sir, I am not what you would call an experienced waiter. As a matter of fact, I—"

The bell downstairs rang violently. Mr. Bacon departed in great haste.

While the traveler performed his ablutions Mr. Dillingford, for the moment disengaged, sat upon the edge of the bed and enjoyed himself. He talked.

"We were nine at the start," said he pensively. "Gradually we were reduced to seven, not including the manager. Two of 'em escaped before the smash. The low comedian and character old woman. Joe Buckley and his wife. That left the old man—I mean Mr. Rushcroft, the star—Lyndon Rushcroft, you know—myself and Bacon, Tommy Gray, Miss Rushcroft, Miss Hughes and a woman named Bradley, seven of us. The woman named Bradley said her mother was dying in Buffalo, so the rest of us scraped together all the money we had—nine dollars and sixty cents—and did the right thing by her. Actors are always doing darn-fool things like that, Mr. Barnes. And what do you suppose she did? She took that money and bought two tickets to Albany, one for herself and another for the manager of the company—the lowest, meanest ornieriest white man that ever— But I am crabbing the old man's part. You ought to hear what he has to say about Mr. Manager. He can use words I never even heard of before. So that leaves just the four of us here, working off the two days' board bill of Bradley and the manager. Rushcroft's ungodly spree, and at the same time keeping our own slate clean. Miss Thackeray will no doubt make up your bed in the morning. She is temporarily a chambermaid. Cracking fine girl, too. Are you all ready? I'll lead you to the dining room. Or would you prefer a little appetizer beforehand? The taproom is right on the way. You mustn't call it the bar. Everybody in that little graveyard town down the road would turn over completely if you did. Hallowed tradition, you know."

"I don't mind having a cocktail. Will you join me?"

"As a matter of fact, I'm expected to," confessed Mr. Dillingford. "We've been drawing quite a bit of custom to the taproom. The Demand for Automobiles Is Greater Than the Supply

This can mean but one thing—a shortage later in the season. The manufacturers are unable to deliver automobiles to us as rapidly as we order them. A delayed order now may mean that you will not get your automobile this season, or until very late. You would thus lose the pleasure of the spring and early summer riding.

We have a number of models in our salesroom and we will gladly demonstrate them.

If you are going to buy a car this year place your order at once.

Tomatoes.

Tomatoes are adapted to growing in every garden, whether large or small. To have a supply early in the season, the seed should be sown under cover four to six weeks before the weather becomes warm outdoors, and the plants should be transplanted once or twice before setting them in the open ground.

Indoor plants should be gradually hardened to outside conditions. This can be done by placing the boxes or pots in which they are planted outdoors for several hours each day when the weather is warm. They may be left out all night when there is no danger of frost. Plants for the main or late crop can be started outdoors after the ground has become warm.

Two methods are in vogue for growing tomatoes in home gardens. In the small gardens the plants may be set two feet apart in each direc-

LESSON 2 SECOND QUARTER SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

CHRIST OUR SAVIOR

LESSON TEXTS—John 1:35-51; Matthew 20:27, 28; John 3:16; Romans 8:31, 32.

GOLDEN TEXT—God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on him should not perish, but have everlasting life.—John 3:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus our friend and savior.

JUNIOR TOPIC—What Jesus does for us.

INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Our Lord and savior.

1. Who Jesus Is (John 1:35-51). It is absolutely indispensable that every pupil regardless of age should know clearly who Jesus is and what he came into the world for. It should be the ardent desire of every teacher to make so clear the person and work of Christ that the pupils may accept him as their Saviour. Nothing short of his Deity and vicarious atonement will avail for salvation. What he is set forth to be is through personal testimony. For the most part that which he was found to be is through personal investigation.

1. The Lamb of God (v. 36). John testified that he is the Lamb of God—the world's sin bearer. The word used and the idea conveyed carry us back to Isaiah 53 and forward to Jesus on the cross, bearing our sins in his own body. Christ had been definitely pointed out to John by the Holy Spirit (vv. 33, 34).

2. The Messiah (v. 41). At the invitation of Jesus, the disciples went and abode with him for a day. As a result of that day with Jesus they testified that he is the Messiah. He is that one whom God had anointed to be the Saviour of men.

3. The Son of God (v. 49). Nathanael was interested through the testimony of a friend. Philip told him that he had found Jesus of Nazareth, of whom Moses had written. He knew that Nazareth was not the birthplace of the Messiah, therefore he inquired: "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" At the invitation of Philip he made a personal investigation. As a result he testified that Jesus was the Son of God, the King of Israel.

4. The Son of Man (v. 51). This is Christ's own testimony. It shows that he is the Messiah who, according to Daniel's prediction (Dan. 7:13), would appear in divine glory and establish a universal and eternal kingdom. In this testimony of Jesus is foreshadowed the union of man and God, and through him the establishment of a medium of communication between earth and heaven. This is the reality of Jacob's vision at Bethel (Gen. 28:12).

11. His Mission in the World (Matt. 20:27, 28; John 3:16).

He came to give his life a ransom for many. The world was lost in sin—about to perish. Christ voluntarily gave his life—died instead of the sinner.

1. The world is dying like the Israelites, because bitten by the serpent of sin.

2. Christ, like the brazen serpent, has been lifted up upon the cross as the remedy for sin (John 3:14, 15).

3. As the Israelites must look up to the uplifted serpent, so those who would be saved must believe on Jesus Christ (John 3:16). While looking by faith to the crucified Christ saves from the death-sting of the serpent, a neglect or refusal to believe on him means to perish.

4. This provision was made by God. It emanated from his love (John 3:16). "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son."

111. What He Gives (Rom. 8:31, 32).

God gave his Son to save a dying world. Those who accept his Son have God on their side. He that spared his Son will freely give all things to those who receive him. He even makes all things work together for good to them who love him (Rom. 8:28).

tion and then pruned to a single stem and tied to stakes. Where plenty of land is available, the plants may be set three to four feet apart and allowed to grow naturally upon the ground. It should be borne in mind, however, that by trimming and tying the plants to stakes a better quality of fruit is obtained, and that the fruit will ripen earlier than when they are not trimmed and trained. From twenty-five to fifty tomato plants will be sufficient for growing in the home garden and this number will furnish plenty of tomatoes for summer use and for canning.—United States Department of Agriculture. PEAS.

Peas are not adapted to growing in very small gardens, as they require much space. The smooth varieties may be sown very early or just as soon as the ground is in shape to work in the spring. The wrinkled varieties should not be sown until the ground has warmed slightly. Some of the dwarf varieties can be grown without supports, but the larger growing sorts require brush, a wire trellis or some form of support.

The old-fashioned English sugar peas on good soil will grow to a height of five or six feet and produce peas until midsummer. It should be borne in mind that under ordinary conditions peas do not withstand great heat, and that they must produce their crop before midsummer.

Time Brings Happiness With The Dawn

The Coming of Baby Marks the Advent of a Glorious Future.

Scientists say great stress should be laid upon the remarkable influence which the mother's happy pre-natal disposition has upon the health and future of the generations to come.

There is a splendid preparation women for over half a century have applied before the start of pregnancy known as Mother's Friend. This is a most grateful, penetrating remedy that at once softens and soothes the myriad of broad, flat abdominal muscles under the skin of the abdomen. By its regular use during the period the nerves, tendons and cords are relaxed and there is an absence of nausea, bearing-down pains, strain and general discomfort more often than otherwise experienced when nature is unaided.

By the use of Mother's Friend night and morning the muscles relax with ease when baby comes, the time at the crisis is shorter and pain and danger is naturally avoided. Write the Bradfield Regulator Company, Dept. E, Lamar Building, Atlanta, Georgia, for their Motherhood Book, and obtain a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist, or all means, and get into condition to meet the crisis.

LIFE NOW WORTH LIVING

Illinois Lady Says Cardui Wrought Great Change in Her Health.

Paris, Ill.—Miss Lydia Arbogast, this place, writes: "When I was 16 years old... I was small, very small for my age. I had a bad color—had the side headache all the time. Just dragging through school... I didn't feel like going to school and my mother and I were worried about myself, for I felt I could stand that condition longer. Hardly cared to live."

After taking a few bottles of Cardui, saw a great change in my health... color fine and I began to grow... I grew well and strong. I was a different girl and have been ever since. I give Cardui all the praise, and had there not been change in me when I first began Cardui couldn't have lived... The headache gradually disappeared as my health was built up and life became worth living."

Tired, Overworked Mothers What You Need is Vinol

War conditions have made the demand upon a mother's time and energy unlimited. In their zeal to do all in their power for their loved ones, they continually overwork and are soon in a nervous, run-down condition. Vinol, the non-secret cod liver and iron tonic, will build you up and make you strong.

HERE IS PROOF

Whitman, Mass.

"I suffered from a nervous, run-down condition and loss of strength so it was hard for me to get around and do my work. After other medicines had failed to help me Vinol restored my health and strength and I heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from a nervous, run-down condition."—Mrs. R. M. Little.

Cleveland, Ohio.

"I keep house for my husband and myself and got into a weak, run-down condition, no strength, languid and no ambition. After doctoring for awhile and getting no better I tried Vinol and to my surprise it built me up and strengthened my whole system. It is certainly a good tonic."—Mrs. Wm. D. Dawson.

What Is Your Daily Newspaper?

A reporter of important events at home and abroad. It is that and more.

It is a directory of buying and selling.

It is the medium that brings together the man who has merchandise or a service, or anything else to sell—and the man who needs and wants these things.

By reading the advertisements in your newspaper you may find what you want with the least expense and in the least time.

And they may point out the fact that you needed many things the lack of which you never realized until you got them.

These benefits might never have been yours without the newspaper advertisement which first brought your need to your attention.

COST NOT COUNTED WHEN IT CAME TO SAVING OUR BOYS

Think of Situation Year Ago, And How Ready We Were to Stake All.

When your boy was on the fighting front over there last fall, or was in one of the training camps over here being hardened for the most terrible task that ever confronted man; when countless mothers with sad eyes were scanning the death lists with hearts atremble, fearing lest the name of a loved one might be there; when the fate of the nation and of the world hung in the balance, then the thought uppermost in every mind was the winning of the war and the avoidance of continued loss of life.

Then during the fall months of 1918 the purse strings of America's citizens were cut with willing hands. For the Fourth Liberty Loan—the Fighting Liberty Loan—the almost inconceivable sum of six billions of dollars was asked by the United States Government to prosecute the war. What the answer was is history—glorious history.

Americans not only met the call, but threw in another billion for good measure.

It required the most sanguine optimist then to predict a victory over Germany before the summer that is now approaching. Thousands of America's best and bravest young men, the flower of the country, were daily offering up and giving their lives for the weal of humanity. They were suffering ghastly wounds, inflicted by weapons such as only the brutality of Germany's most vicious minds could fashion; they were being blinded and tortured with poisonous gases that Germany introduced against all usages into modern warfare, and they were lying in the mud of slimy trenches, deprived of every comfort, with each recurrent day sapping their vitality, that America might be saved.

Total Wealth Pledged.

Then could anyone in absolute authority have promised a victory before Europe was locked in winter's grasp, the total wealth of this rich land would unhesitatingly have been placed at the nation's disposal, that the lives of countless thousands of the flower of American manhood need not be sacrificed.

Those who were planning and directing the war, or that part of it being enacted by America, were dominated by the idea of ending the war quickly and saving every American life possible. The cost was not counted. The money that flowed from the people's purse was spent unstintingly. Millions were spent to equip the grandest army the sun ever shone on. Other millions were spent for ships to convey them across the Atlantic. Factories were kept at work night and day turning out munitions and supplies.

America surpassed even herself. She arose even above the glorious traditions of the world's greatest country, that has never tasted defeat. She accomplished the impossible. At the very moment when the German war machine seemed invincible, when that which was intended as the final drive that was to wipe France off the map, then Pershing's lads were thrown against that terrible army in gray. The onslaught was all that Germany had planned. But the stolid German mind had not adequately valued the fighting ability of the boys in khaki. The gray clad hosts attacked with all the confidence of their training. But the Americans did not yield. Their depleted ranks were filled as if by magic and that which German militarists contemptuously termed an untrained mob, displayed soldierly qualities and persistent fighting qualities that has elicited the warmest admiration of the whole world.

Finish the Job!

Every day the war was shortened thousands of American lives were saved. For every day it was shortened your boy or your neighbor's boy will be returned to the family fireside just that much sooner, and this fact that he will return sound in body and mind is due to the splendid preparations his government made for his welfare and the prosecution of the war.

Now more money is needed to pay the bills—the debt that was incurred that the life of your boy and your neighbor's boy might not be offered up on the sacrificial altar of war, must be paid. Money is needed to bring him back to the land that gave birth to the Stars and Stripes. Money is needed to complete the reconstruction and to "Finish the Job."

Just how much will be asked, just how much interest will be paid, just what form the securities offered will take, and just when they will mature have not been announced. They are mere details. The nation's honor has been pledged, and the American people will redeem it with the Victory Liberty Loan.

Remember the Boys.

If you appreciate the victory that our boys in khaki and blue have won in order that you may enjoy the peace that is now ours, subscribe to your limit in the Victory Liberty Loan. Make this, the fifth and last Liberty Loan, the biggest success of all Liberty Loans. The nation needs your money now to "finish the job."

Mr. and Mrs. George Otto, who have been spending a few days with their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Carroll, and family, left this morning for Windsor, Canada.

It Is Good Business to Subscribe to the Victory Liberty Loan

IT is freely stated that the VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN should be floated on a business basis. It is contended that the rate of interest and terms should be attractive to banks and investors with idle funds.

We are assured that the terms of the Loan will be attractive, but it matters not what the terms are, there is not enough idle money available to take up a loan of five or six billion dollars.

It would be bad business for the banks to absorb the Loan. It would be bad for the banks and it would be bad for our community.

Good business demands that the banks keep their funds in such shape that they can loan money to their customers when it is needed. If the banks use their funds to purchase Liberty Bonds, their ability to loan money to business men and farmers is lessened. The question is shall the banks loan their money to Uncle Sam or to our people?

If our people buy the Bonds the banks will lend them the money they need to complete the payments. This will not affect the ability of the banks to take care of the loans to our business men and farmers, because the banks can rediscount the notes given for Liberty Bonds and thus replenish their funds.

It is good business for our people to subscribe to the VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN and thus keep the banks free to take care of their regular borrowers.

If business can get the money it needs, more crops will be grown, more goods will be made, more people will be employed.

For purely selfish business reasons our people should subscribe to the VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN. For patriotic reasons, also, we should all do our part. The money raised by the VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN will be largely used to pay for bills already contracted in winning the war. We must keep the credit of our Government untarnished. What American would refuse to do his share in keeping bright the name of our glorious country?

We are not quitters. Let's finish the job as only real Americans know how.

HOW BEST TO CUT DOWN THE INCOME TAX NEXT SPRING

For Every Victory Liberty Bond Bought You Pay That Much Less in Taxes

DO YOU WANT TO CUT DOWN YOUR INCOME TAX?

It can be done. And there are mighty few of us who would not like to see taxes, including income taxes, somewhat reduced.

After you had worked and wrestled around with that income tax and got it all figured out, how did you feel about it? Didn't it sort of shock you when you multiplied to get that old six per cent?

Didn't the realization that you would have to pay out just so many cold "iron men" sort of startle you?

Yes, it did most of us. Whether that income was $1,000 or $10,000 it came with a distinct shock, that discovery that we were then and there indebted to our Uncle Samuel by just so many dollars that must be paid.

However, big as the income tax was, it would have been a great deal bigger if you and all your friends and relatives and everyone else's friends and relatives had not bought so heavily of Liberty Bonds in the past.

It is also easy to see that unless the American public, which includes you and me and all of us, buys heavily of the Victory Liberty Loan, the income tax and the various other government taxes will not grow any lighter very soon.

Every man who wants the income tax rate to come down before January 1, 1920, ought to buy just as liberally of Victory Liberty Bonds as possible.

But what has the income tax got to do with Liberty Bond issues? More than a little. All this extra money that is being raised in this country for Government purposes is going, directly or indirectly, as the case may be, to aid in payment of the war debt.

And, if they are not paid out of loans, they must be paid out of taxes. To attempt to pay these debts off by straight taxation would be crushing taxation. It simply could not be done. The country is not wealthy enough, great as are its riches and wonderful as its resources are, to stand such crushing blows of taxation as would be necessary to clean up all the debts, right off the reel by taxation alone.

So the government is lessening the immediate blow as much as possible, by floating this bond issue and thus spreading the cost of the war over the years of the future and make the annual burden just so much lighter.

Therefore that income tax blank over which you slaved and sweated awhile back was a mighty good argument for the Victory Liberty Loan if you will just look at it that way. The six per cent net income figure was a mighty biting argument.

And if there was anything on that income tax blank, saying anything about the government ever giving any of that income tax money back to you, well, nobody saw anything of the kind. Just recall that the Liberty Bond money comes back to you, on the solemn promise of the United States Government, the Government that never broke a promise. A tax paid is money gone, but a Liberty Bond is an investment.

Nor was there anything on that income tax blank about the government paying you a cent of interest on the income tax payments. No indeed, you were paying the Government—and no mention was made of any return, or of any interest.

A Liberty Bond is an interest-bearing security. It is an investment and not a tax.

To lessen the income tax and other taxes that must be paid in the future buy Liberty Bonds, all you can of the Victory Loan.

LOAN TO BOOM BUILDING

Construction Work Is Speeded Up on Eve of Victory Note Campaign.

Statistics compiled by Bradstreet's indicate that a building boom is under way. Official reports from 95 cities show a gain of 24.2 per cent for February this year over that month last year.

Good gains are shown in St. Louis, Cincinnati, Columbus, Detroit, Indianapolis, Toledo, New York, and a dozen other cities.

Building is one of the barometers of prosperity. The boom—the real, big boom which is bound to come this summer—is being held in check by the prospect of the Victory Liberty Loan. With the Victory Loan out of the way—and popularly subscribed—the banks will be in a position to open up on real estate loans and building will flourish.

SEE IT THROUGH!

What though the guns begin to rust,
The fire of war is ash—
What matter if the vineyard land
Forgets the pounding chash?
We cannot say we saw it through
Until the last bill's paid,
Until the road of peaceful gain
Is staunchly, firmly laid.
Is staunchly, firmly laid.
The deeds of heroes there,
Until we've nursed them back to health
And paid the homeward fare.
We loaned our dollars while they bled,
Now Victory Bonds let's buy
To guarantee the things for which
Our brothers went to die!

Game Is Not Over

Pessimistic talk about the floating of the Victory Liberty Loan? Hasn't the world always had its pessimists? In the hour of supreme crisis, when the final stroke for victory is to be made, is the time the slacker and pessimist gives up the "game."

A baseball enthusiast was approached by one of the world's afflicted—a doubting Thomas—who could not possibly see America going into her pockets and "putting up" for a few billions for another loan.

"It cannot be done," he dolefully concluded.

"It can be done," the other man snapped, his eyes speaking for him the language of the true sporting spirit that may die, but is game to the last ditch.

"You haven't said a word about 'Victory' Loan, but you have been talking about a defeated loan. Do you know how Billy Sunday would answer your argument? And you bet your sweet life Billy is right there with good old American punch too. Here is what he says about it:

"Why, you little simp of perdition, you are quitting the game with two out and two strikes on and the 'batter up.' Put over that last ball and put him out! Give the 'Hun' that last wallop that gets 'the count'!"

Is Billy right? All the world may not always agree with Billy at all times, but all the good old United States knows that he talks good sound horse sense when he puts the baseball punch into the "game" we are playing.

The boys played a life and death game on the other side. Are we going to quit the game over here at this critical time?

FOR SICK AND WOUNDED.

Thousands of sick and wounded men lie in base hospitals. They offered their lives that freedom might live. They must be given every care, healed and returned to their homes. The government asks for a loan. It offers the Victory Liberty Notes (short term bonds), which will soon be issued. The menace to civilization is dead. German autocracy has been destroyed. War bills must now be paid.

ONE MORE BIG DRIVE.

One more big loan—one more big drive—to pay for what our boys did in France. The spirit that characterized the American troops is evident at home. Everyone worth the victory won in Europe will do his full part in the coming Victory Liberty Loan campaign.

Sergeant Artus Hufnagel, of Camp Sherman, who came yesterday to visit his father, K. A. Hufnagel, left this morning for Holland.

NOTED WOMEN IN WORK

Mrs. Vincent Astor and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Enlist in East.

Mrs. Vincent Astor and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., will be two of the principal workers of the Division of Women Speakers during the Victory Liberty Loan campaign. Other speakers in the East will be Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of the late Colonel Roosevelt, Miss Ruth Morgan, Mrs. Nina Larre Duryea, Miss Elizabeth Marbury and Miss Elsie DeWolfe.

Mrs. Astor was in charge of the Y. M. C. A. Naval Canteen at Brest for many months. She took up this work when her husband, an officer in the U. S. Navy, went on patrol duty in search of submarines. Mrs. Roosevelt is the wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Roosevelt, who only recently returned from France. She was in Paris last summer when the Germans launched their great offensive. Her husband was wounded while leading his battalion in the successful efforts of American troops to stem the Hun tide. Miss Morgan was also in Paris last summer, where she was an official of the American Red Cross, in charge of important relief work.

Many other women intend to lay aside social and business responsibilities for patriotic service as speakers during the Victory Loan drive.

OUR PRAYERS.

By Jean Mahan Plank.

We pray and we weep with emotions that weary us;
Ready to worship our heroes of war,
We put them on pedestals high as old Sirius,
Gaze at them proudly or cheer from afar.

If we'd get in touch with Divine Law mysterious,
Draw fire to forward our impulses fond,
'Twould carry the message to God that we're serious
If we backed up our prayer with a Liberty Bond.

Ensign Joe McDonald went to Lafayette this morning.

WATCH BOND BROKER THE

Spending Money to Get U. S. Securities and There's a Reason.

There is a lot of money being spent every day in advertising with the object of separating plain Mr. American from his Liberty Bonds either by offers to buy them outright or trading in wildcat stock for them. Many plain Mr. Americans are rushing in where wise men fear to tread and are "falling" for the advertisements without thought of why the other fellow wants the bonds.

Advertising, especially the kind Liberty Bond brokers are using, costs a lot of money. Where does the buyer get off? Well, be sure he is getting off else he wouldn't advertise. He isn't in business for his health. He is after the money. It's a cinch you are helping him to a big rake-off when you trade or sell your Liberty Bonds. That's sense, isn't it?

If a Liberty Bond is worth, say, $95 to the broker after he has paid for all of his expensive advertising, it certainly is worth par or more than par to the holder. For on top of his advertising expenses the broker maintains costly offices and much help. That's sense, isn't it?

The reason the broker wants the bonds is that he or his clients want to hold them. It's the broker's business to know bond values. He knows that these Liberty Bonds are going to be valuable things—that they are going "way above par"—within a year or two.

Hold them yourself.
GOAL IS IN SIGHT.
The real patriot will not quit with the goal in sight. The victory is won, but the war will not be over until the last American soldier who did his duty over there is safely returned to his home. We danced when Germany was licked, and now we must pay the fiddler.

Mrs. E. P. Elsner and Mrs. August Elsner went to Indianapolis this morning.

Mrs. C. E. Morton spent today in Cincinnati shopping.
